YOUR DAY

Chicken-finger Thursday, then Erev Sukkot tomorrow

Tishrei 13 at RHA; candles Friday at 6:51 p.m.; sunny and mild.

Zorah, Thursday stays ordinary at school: RHA marks Tishrei 13, and the Week 1 lunch tray is chicken fingers with potato wedges and veggie sticks. The morning is clear, with a high near 19°C after a cool start around 11°C.

Daily brief: <https://sdltor.github.io/household-groceries/>

Friday is Erev Sukkot: 3:15 dismissal, challah on the lunch list, and candles at 6:51 p.m. Saturday opens Sukkot I with Jonah-Hockey at Bill Bolton (10:30–2:30) and a sleepover at Stone from 5:00. Sunday holds Sukkot II and swim at Prosserman JCC (12:55–1:25); the holiday ends at 7:48 p.m.

Wednesday adds National Day for Truth & Reconciliation and Breakfast in the Sukkah at 7:30 a.m. One household note is unchanged: the RAV4 hail assessment is done, and Toyota has not yet sent a repair plan or time slot.

Stuffed peppers with wild-rice pilaf for the sukkah table

Leave it to Bubbe’s colorful bell peppers packed with brown and wild rice, chives, and pecans.

Sukkot cooking often means stuffed foods. Leave it to Bubbe fills four whole peppers – red, green, orange, yellow – with a brown-and-wild-rice pilaf cooked with onion, scallions, garlic, chives, and pecans, then bakes them until the tops brown.

The rice takes about 45 to 50 minutes on the stove; the stuffed peppers need another 25 to 35 minutes in a hot oven. Optional tomato sauce in the dish keeps things moist for a sukkah table.

STYLE DESK · FALL 2026

Velvet, sporty layers, and a mid-hip bomber

Truc Nguyen’s Globe and Mail fall guide translates runway looks into wearable pieces.

Jewel-tone velvet dresses need little else. Sporty track jackets show up next to dressier separates, and elevated bombers work best when they end around mid-hip.

Canadian stylists Jillian Vieira and Matthew Chow also flag pencil skirts, looser pin-stripes, and patterned knits for cooler mornings.

Cook the rice pilaf today, then stuff and bake when Erev Sukkot arrives.

One velvet piece or a mid-hip bomber

Try a jewel-tone velvet layer, or a bomber that stops at mid-hip over a knit.

DEAR TIMES

Light practice candles on Thursday?

Dear Times, Erev Sukkot is tomorrow with candles at 6:51, and I keep lining up the candlesticks a day early. Is Thursday rehearsal helpful, or should I leave the wicks alone until Friday?

— Early Wick, Toronto

Dear Early Wick, Leave the real lighting for Friday. A dry run with empty sticks is fine if it calms you, but today's job is the chicken-finger lunch tray, not the match.
