DAILY BRIEF — ZORAH'S DAILY HOME

YOUR DAY

Chol HaMoed Thursday, Chinese lunch, Culture Days tonight

Sukkot VI · Tishrei 20; Chinese Food · Spring Roll; National Ballet apprentices at 7 p.m.; overcast with a high near 22°C.

Zorah, Thursday is Sukkot VI — still Chol HaMoed — and RHA marks Tishrei 20. Lunch is the Week 2 board: Chinese food and spring roll. Skies look overcast with light drizzle possible, a high near 22°C, and a low near 16°C.

Tonight, if you want a short culture night, the National Ballet of Canada's apprentices are at Betty Oliphant Theatre from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. for Culture Days — classical and contemporary pieces with live piano, then a brief Q&A. Looking ahead: Friday is Hoshana Raba with a 3:15 dismissal and candles at 6:39 p.m.; Saturday pairs Jonah-Hockey with Shmini Atzeret; Sunday is Simchat Torah and Jonah-Swimming. Daily brief: <https://sdltr.github.io/household-groceries/>

The RAV4 hail assessment is still done with no Toyota repair plan or time slot yet. Nothing new to chase on that this morning.

KITCHEN • SWEET STUFFED FOR SUKKOT

Pumpkin-pie challah buns – dessert that shares

Micah Siva's J. Weekly recipe (Sep 28): spiced challah, pumpkin-cream cheese filling, pumpkin-seed streusel.

Micah Siva wrote for J. Weekly that Sukkot has no required menu, so she treats it as a green light for early-fall flavors and stuffed foods that travel well to the sukkah. After eating sweet stuffed brioche buns in South Korea, she rebuilt the idea with weekly challah dough. The dough gets a spoon of pumpkin puree; the filling is pumpkin, cream cheese, eggs, brown sugar, and pumpkin-pie spice; the top is a pumpkin-seed streusel. Press a well into each round, fill, egg-wash the rim, bake about 15-20 minutes at 350°F – a dozen buns that work for dessert or a late breakfast before Hoshana Raba tomorrow.

STYLE DESK • FALL 2026

Collared knits for the cool-down ahead

British Vogue's Natalie Hammond (Sep 29) points to collared cardigans and jumpers as a simple upgrade on crew necks and a softer alternative to turtlenecks – useful when a full jacket feels like too much but a bare neck feels wrong.

Examples on the AW26 runways include Prada's zippered Aran cardigan with pockets, Dries Van Noten's Fair Isle pieces styled as collar-plus-scarf-plus-jumper layers, and Brunello Cucinelli's chunky button-down over a shirt for a double collar. For a rainy Friday after Chinese-lunch Thursday, a collared knit is the practical layer. No prices in this paper.

THE TOWN

ON THE TOWN • TODAY / SATURDAY

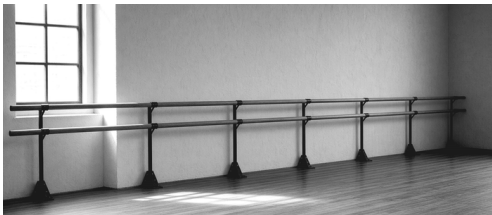

National Ballet: Culture Days apprentice performance

Thu Oct 1, 7:00-8:00 p.m. at Betty Oliphant Theatre. One-hour classical and contemporary program from the National Ballet of Canada's RBC Apprentices with live piano, then a short dancer Q&A. Family-friendly Culture Days night before Friday's early dismissal.

First Saturdays: Jewish Storytelling (Sukkot)

Sat Oct 3, 11:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. at The Village at Black Creek. Eden Nameri explores harvest, hospitality, and Sukkot themes with storytelling and hands-on moments. Same Saturday as Jonah-Hockey and Shmini Atzeret – an optional window if energy allows.

RECOMMENDED • WEEKEND OUTDOOR WINDOW

Ravine festival Saturday – cool, clearer air

Saturday Oct 3, noon to 4 p.m., the Toronto Botanical Garden hosts its Fall Ravine Festival – nature passport scavenger hunt, live music, and hands-on stations across the Garden and Wilket Creek Ravine. Forecast looks cooler and clearer than midweek, so it is a workable outdoor option beside Jonah-Hockey and Shmini Atzeret if you want a second outing.

Event details can change; check the listing before going.

DEAR TIMES
Spring roll on stage – or on the tray?

Dear Times, Our spring roll keeps auditioning for things that are not lunch. Last night it stretched at the kitchen counter. How do we explain noon?

– Casting-Curious in Toronto

Dear Casting-Curious, Post a casting notice that reads CHINESE FOOD · SPRING ROLL – ONE SHOWING ONLY, MIDDAY. Applause is optional. Encores go in the fridge.
