DAILY BRIEF — ZORAH'S DAILY HOME

YOUR DAY

Chol HaMoed Wednesday, sukkah breakfast, sushi lunch

National Day for Truth & Reconciliation; Breakfast in the Sukkah at 7:30 a.m.; Edamame · Sushi; overcast with a high near 22°C.

Zorah, Wednesday is Sukkot V — Chol HaMoed — and RHA marks Tishrei 19. It is also National Day for Truth & Reconciliation. Breakfast in the Sukkah is at 7:30 a.m., and lunch is the Week 2 board: edamame and sushi. Skies look overcast with a high near 22°C and a low near 16°C — mild and a little muggy.

The holiday week keeps moving: Thursday is Chinese food and spring roll under Sukkot VI; Friday is Hoshana Raba with 3:15 dismissal and candles at 6:39 p.m.; Saturday pairs Jonah-Hockey with Shmini Atzeret; Sunday is Simchat Torah and Jonah-Swimming.

One household note still sits open: the RAV4 hail assessment is done, and Toyota has not yet sent a repair plan or time slot. Nothing new to chase this morning.

KITCHEN • TOWARD SHMINI ATZERET

Polish stuffed cabbage – seal the leaf, simmer the pot

Tamar Raskas Benovitz's family recipe – tomato-lemon sauce, optional rice, a two-day cabbage freeze.

Tamar Raskas Benovitz told the Jewish Food Society that stuffed cabbage was a given in her family's sukkah – even when the weather swung from coats to a surprise heat wave. Sealing each leaf also nods to the idea of one's fate being sealed on Shemini Atzeret, which lands this Saturday on the RHA calendar.

Her method softens a whole green cabbage by freezing it for 24 hours, then thawing it another day so the leaves roll cleanly. The filling is ground beef with onion, garlic, egg, a little sugar and lemon (rice optional). The sauce is tomato, water, lemon, brown sugar, and raisins. Nest the rolls seam-side down and simmer about two hours – six to eight servings that hold for a holiday table.

STYLE DESK • FALL 2026

Stripes, polos, and knits that drape

Harper's Bazaar's Fall/Winter 2026 sweater guide keeps the focus on knitwear you can actually layer while Toronto stays mild: revived V-necks for button-downs underneath, short-sleeve knit tees before the heavy turtlenecks, striped pullovers after a summer of coastal stripes, preppy polo sweaters, and draped or scarf-neck knits that act almost like a light wrap.

For an overcast Chol HaMoed school morning, the practical read is a striped or polo knit you can throw on after sukkah breakfast – color is still welcome under grey skies. No prices in this paper.

THE TOWN

ON THE TOWN • MIDWEEK / SATURDAY

National Ballet: Culture Days apprentice performance

Thu Oct 1, 7:00-8:00 p.m. at Betty Oliphant Theatre. Family-friendly one-hour classical and contemporary program from the National Ballet of Canada's apprentices, live piano, then a short Q&A. Easy midweek culture night before Friday's early dismissal.

First Saturdays: Jewish Storytelling (Sukkot)

Sat Oct 3, 11:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. at The Village at Black Creek. Eden Nameri explores harvest, hospitality, and Sukkot themes with storytelling and hands-on moments – park it around Jonah-Hockey if energy allows.

RECOMMENDED • WEEKEND OPTIONS

TBG Fall Ravine Festival – Sat noon-4

Saturday Oct 3, noon to 4 p.m., the Toronto Botanical Garden hosts its Fall Ravine Festival – nature passport scavenger hunt, live music, light circus bits. Same Saturday as Jonah-Hockey and Shmini Atzeret, so treat it as an optional outdoor window.

Skirt under a chunky jumper

While midweek highs still sit in the low 20s, Jess Cartner-Morley's Guardian note still applies: a flimsy little skirt under a chunky jumper – weight contrast, not a full boots-and-tweed leap.

Event details can change; check the listing before going.

DEAR TIMES

Sushi at 7:30 – or wait for the tray?

Dear Times, It's Chol HaMoed Wednesday – Breakfast in the Sukkah at 7:30, and the lunch board says edamame and sushi. Someone in this house wants the sushi roll to count as breakfast under the greens. Do I allow the early seating, or hold the line until noon?

– Queue-Curious in Toronto

Dear Queue-Curious, Let breakfast stay breakfast. Enjoy the sukkah sitting at 7:30 without negotiating raw fish diplomacy; sushi and edamame keep their noon tray. National Day for Truth & Reconciliation is a quieter morning anyway – save the rolls for lunch.
