DAILY BRIEF — ZORAH'S DAILY HOME

YOUR DAY

Grade 6 heads to Mansfield on a clear Wednesday

Hot-dog lunch at school; Erev Sukkot is Friday with candles at 6:51.

Zorah, Wednesday is the Mansfield field-trip day for Grade 6. RHA lists it with Tishrei 12, and the Week 1 lunch tray is hot dogs and veggie sticks. The morning looks sunny, with a high near 18°C after a cool start around 9°C.

Daily brief: <https://sdltor.github.io/household-groceries/>

Friday is Erev Sukkot: 3:15 dismissal, challah on the lunch list, and candles at 6:51 p.m. Saturday is Sukkot I with Jonah-Hockey at Bill Bolton (10:30–2:30) and a sleepover at Stone from 5:00. Sunday holds Sukkot II and swim at Prosserman JCC (12:55–1:25); the holiday ends at 7:48 p.m.

One household note is unchanged: the RAV4 hail assessment is done, and Toyota has not yet sent a repair plan or time slot.

KITCHEN · SUKKOT

Stuffed onions, Baghdadi-style, for the sukkah table

Sephardic Spice Girls' ma'hasha — beef, rice, and a sweet-sour tomato broth.

Sukkot cooking often means stuffed foods. Sharon Gomperts and Rachel Emquies Sheff's Jewish Journal piece walks through Nana Aziza's onion ma'hasha: onion layers filled with beef, rice, pine nuts, parsley, mint, lemon, and silan, then slow-roasted in a sweet-sour tomato broth for about an hour.

For a Toronto week that still has Mansfield before Friday's Erev Sukkot, it is a make-ahead sukkah main that rewards a little patience.

STYLE DESK · FALL 2026

Earth tones, hiking boots, and one small accent

Madeline Fass's Vogue fall forecast starts outdoors.

Forest greens, browns, weathered coats, and rugged hiking boots sit in the "Down to Earth" section. Beside that are smaller moves: a brooch on a jacket, pearls tucked into a knit, or one belt that changes the outfit.

For a clear Wednesday that still starts near single digits, the practical read is one earthy layer plus one small accent, not a full closet rewrite.

THE TOWN

ON THE TOWN · FASHION

Toronto Vintage Show fills Exhibition Place this weekend

Sat Sep 26, 9 a.m.–6 p.m. and Sun Sep 27, 10 a.m.–5 p.m. at the Queen Elizabeth Building – about 125 vendors of vintage fashion from the 1950s through Y2K, plus designer racks and a Volkswagen Bus photo booth. A fashion stop that fits the Sukkot weekend around hockey and the sleepover.

Toronto Wellness Festival at Mel Lastman Square

Fri Sep 25 through Sun Sep 27 – free entry, with a food market, makers booths, family activities, and movement classes. Easy to dip into between holiday cooking and the rest of the weekend.

RECOMMENDED

Start the onion fill before Friday

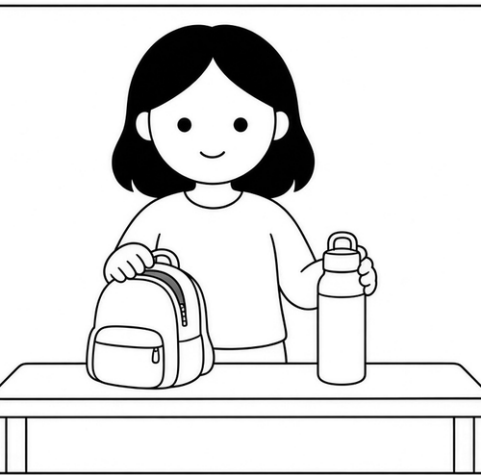

Prep the stuffing after Mansfield, then roast when Erev Sukkot arrives.

One earthy layer for cool mornings

Add a forest-green or brown knit, try hiking-boot energy with trousers, or pin one small brooch.

Event details can change; check the listing before going.

DEAR TIMES

One leaf or the whole forest?

Dear Times, Grade 6 is at Mansfield today and I already want a souvenir shelf. Is pressing one leaf in a notebook enough, or do I need a whole bag of nature?

– Trail Minimalist, Toronto

Dear Trail Minimalist, One leaf is enough. Press it flat, date the page, and leave the rest of the forest where it is. The notebook will still remember the day.
